

Rules of Conduct

Last Updated Friday, 30 March 2012 17:19

1. The manager rules supreme. What the manager says, that is the law of Midgard!
2. Treat the hardware as if it was your own. No, that doesn't mean for you to take it home, it means treat it with respect or it might fail you when you need it the most, in the heat of battle. Report all broken or missing items immediately. You will not be held responsible, unless it broke as the result of your malicious action.
3. Helping those that are less skilled or knowledgeable brings you honour. Remember, we all started out as noobs. Though it does seem some people might just have been incubated in a game console.
4. Entry and exit through front door only. Use of portals and other teleportation devices are restricted to 'within facility' travel only.
5. Absolutely no smoking or handling of tobacco products. There are no achievements for killing yourself.
6. No profanities and other foul language. Use of profanities and obscene language is a sign of limited vocabulary and weak character. We know you are smarter than that.
7. Any and all illegal activity will be reported to the authorities. Smile, you're on camera!
8. No person under the influence of alcohol and/or drugs are allowed. There's just no sport in pwning someone that has limited their own brain function.
9. No outside food or beverages, except by special permission. No, we do not want fries with (or in) that controller.
10. Put your trash in the designated trash bins. Really! Do it! This isn't a movie theatre.
11. If you spill something, let us know right away. We will not yell at you, we just need to clean it up, but if you wait too long we might just ask you to lick up the mess yourself.
12. Management reserve the right to remove any player, without a refund, for any activity deemed unacceptable by the management. This includes, but is not limited to, aggressive or abusive behaviour towards others users or the staff, excessive noise, sexual harassment/behaviour.
13. The network is for multi-player gaming and accessing the internet only. Do not snoop around on the network, or we WILL swing the ban hammer.
14. Persons under 13 years of age must be accompanied by an adult (18 years of age or older).
15. Persons under 16 years of age not allowed after 10pm, unless accompanied by an adult (18 years of age or older) or an 'extended stay' permission is on file.
16. Persons under 18 years of age not allowed after 12am, unless accompanied by an adult (18 years of age or older) or an 'extended stay' permission is on file.
